A woman is moving out....

The indifferent boyfriend, a wanna-be-guru colleague, an indefinable guru, a challenging stranger - everybody has been telling her how to live her life. Until now she has listened to them....and to tango.

A break-up is the catalyst for change. During the process of moving out she finds her own voice and the courage to move on.

Moves & chaNges, at times funny, sad and angry is about love and choices, violence and hope, tango and taking risks.
